COUNCIL PASSES
THE REVENUE
ORDINANCESA Special Meeting Held When Measures Governing Ad Valorem and License Taxes Went Through.

A special meeting of the city council was held at noon yesterday for the purpose of passing the two ordinances introduced last Wednesday night. Mayor Bliss presided and the following members were present: Aldermen Christie, D'Alemberte, Hays, Maun, McHugh, Reilly and Wright.

The mayor stated the object of the meeting and on motion the council proceeded to take action on the ordinance relating to ad valorem taxes. After reading the city attorney's opinion in regard to the legality of the said ordinance it was put and passed without a dissenting vote.

This being disposed with the ordinance relating to license taxes was taken up and after being read for the third time was also passed unanimously.

Both ordinances were approved and signed by the mayor and clerk yesterday, and are published elsewhere in today's Journal.

It was again decided to postpone action in the election of a Bond Trustee to succeed F. C. Brent, who tendered his resignation last Wednesday night. The two other bond trustees who are required to furnish bonds in the amount of $15,000.00 each, have not yet qualified, but they may file their respective bonds with the city clerk for approval of the council at its next meeting.

A special meeting in the near future was spoken of in the meeting but no definite date was set for it.

TURPENTINE
IS ON A BOOMHAS REACHED THE HIGH PRICE
OF 65 1/2 CENTS WITH FIRM MARKET.

The Savannah News of Thursday says: The spirits of turpentine market broke through the 65 cent market yesterday going 1/4 of a cent above that mark only to sell off again in the late trading, though the undertone continues very firm and light sales were reported in the late trading at the market price. The market opened firm at 64 1/2 cents, with sales of 577 casks, and closed firm at 65 1/2 cents, with additional sales of 105. After the close fair sales were made at 65 cents, but factors were not unanimous in their views of the probable course of the market for some time. The market price of 65 1/2 cents. One small lot was sold at the market price of 65 1/2 cents. The receipts were 368 casks, and the shipments none. The New York market was reported firm at 68 cents, and London reported an advance to 48-49.

The rosin market opened firm at prices below, with sales of 2,181 barrels and closed firm and unchanged without additional sales. In the late trading all offerings were taken by exporters at an advance of 5 cents on D. C. B. The receipts were but 777 barrels, and the shipments 282. The New York market was quoted firm at an advance to $2.80.

The very light receipts in both spirits and rosin is believed to be due in part to the rush of cotton to the market causing a delay in the handling of cars on many of the railroads that are the chief carriers of naval stores.

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler, of Hightower, Ala., relates an experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Cleburne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some souse meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was cured in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us." For sale by all druggists.
